

GOODBYE 2020

A coloring book & journal to help process what the f@#$ just happened.
#Surviving2020

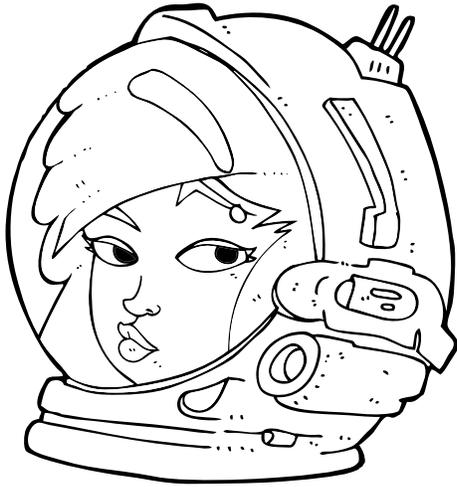

Sometimes it felt like the world was on fire - and it was. From Australia to California we came face to face with the impact of climate change.

The World Health Organization announced Jan. 9 that a deadly coronavirus had emerged in Wuhan, China. How did you feel in January?

FEBRUARY

NASA astronaut Christina Koch returned to Earth after 328 days in space (I guess she didn't get the warning), a record for a woman.

A jury convicted Harvey Weinstein of felony sex crimes and rape, but acquitted him of the most serious charges against him, predatory sexual assault.

What are your reflections from February 2020?

MARCH

The coronavirus pandemic triggered a global recession as numerous countries went into lockdown. The Dow Jones industrial average suffered its worst single-day point drop.

The racist killings of George Floyd, Ahmaud Arbery, and Breonna Taylor this Spring sparked a renewed demand for an end to police brutality and sparked deep conversations about delayed racial justice in America.

What was or would be on your protest sign? What does the issue of racial justice mean to you?

April

The first tiger at the Bronx Zoo tested positive for Covid and everyone was abuzz about Netflix's Tiger King which prompted many conversations about the abusive relationships displayed in the docuseries.

What were you binge watching in 2020 and what reflections did you have about relationship dynamics in media?

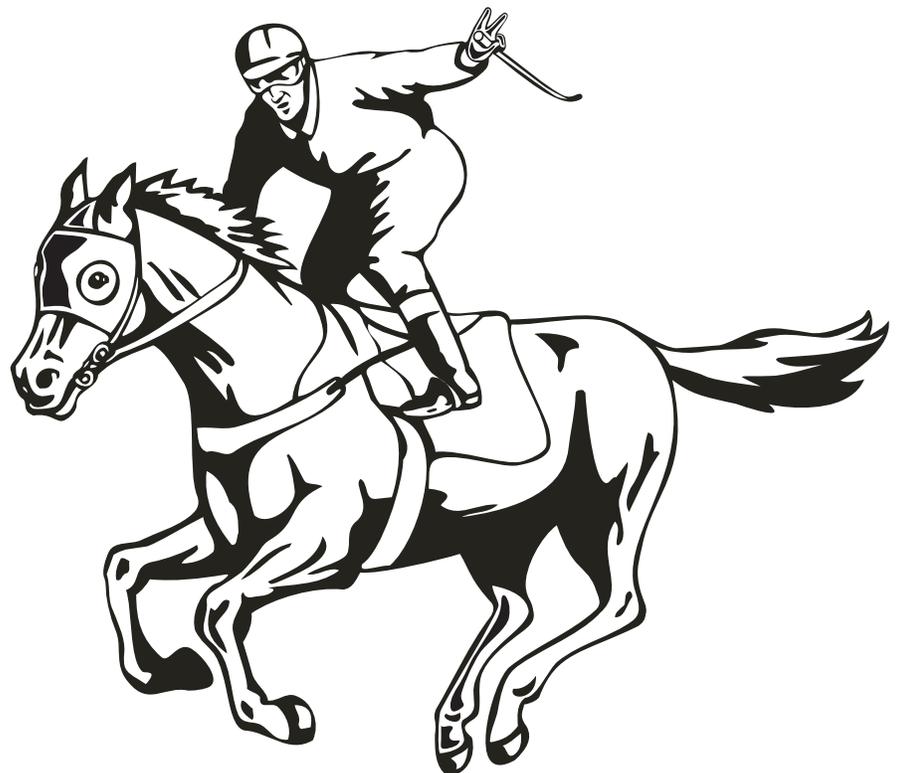

On May 4, a highly venomous and invasive hornet species, dubbed "Murder Hornets," were spotted in the US and threatened the already dying bee population in Washington State.

Churchill Downs postponed the Kentucky Derby marking the first time since World War II that the Kentucky Derby has taken place outside of May.

What ways did you find to connect to your people when you couldn't gather?

June

Black Lives Matter protests continued across the country and were met with police brutality.

Mississippi's legislature passed a bill to remove the Confederate Flag symbol from the state flag and Governor Beshear signed a proclamation recognizing Juneteenth in Kentucky.

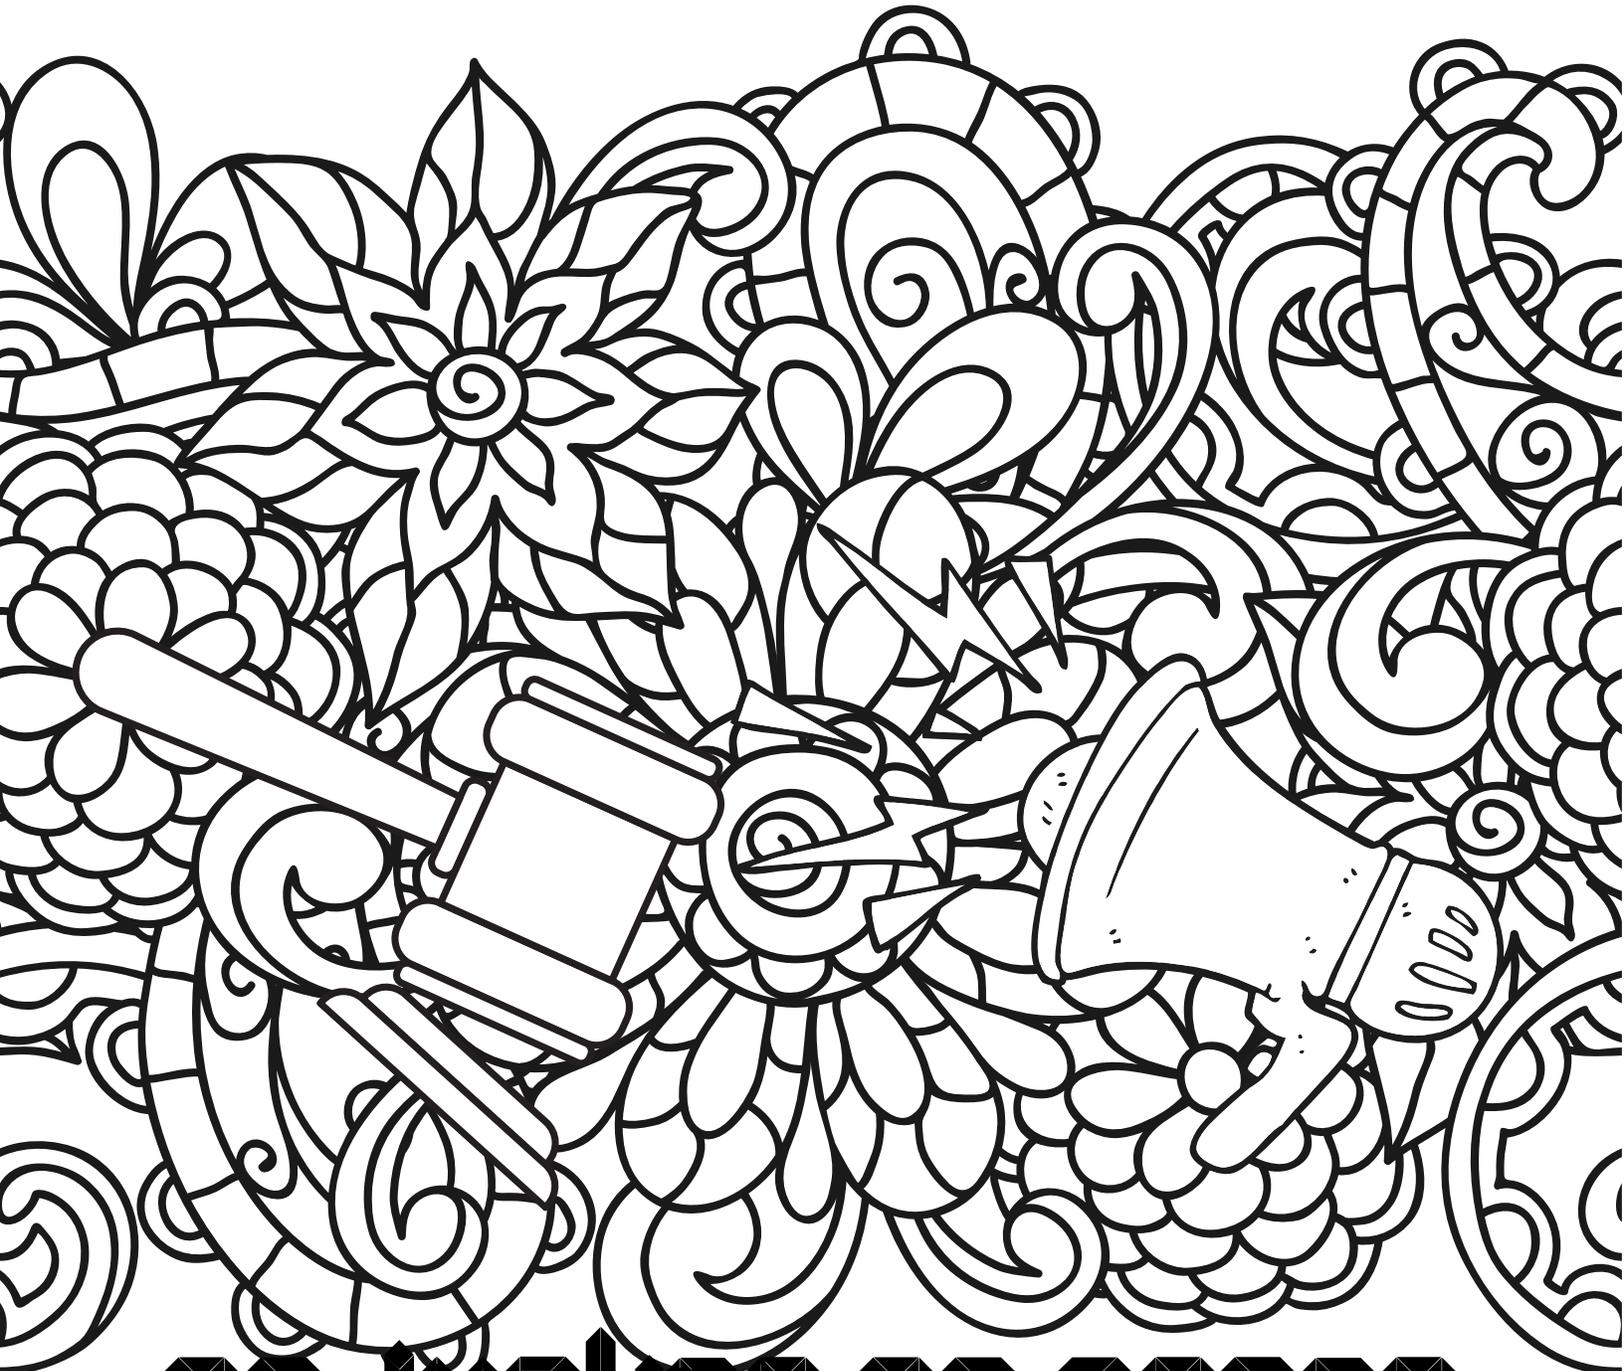

As progress was made in 2020 there is still so much at stake. What do you feel like you learned about your community in June?

July

Ghislaine Maxwell was nabbed July 2 for her complicity in Jeffrey Epstein's sex-trafficking crimes while holed up in a luxury home on a 156-acre estate in New Hampshire.

Protests continued to spur reform on racial justice and police brutality with Black activists leading the way.

no justice no peace

august

Biden announced August 11th that he selected Senator Kamala Harris as his running mate, making her the first Black woman and the first Asian woman on a major party's presidential ticket. A glass ceiling is broken.

What kinds of conversations did you have with your friends and family when this happened?

September

Ruth Bader Ginsberg
March 15, 1933 - September 18, 2020

OCTOBER

October is the month of facing your fears and this very scary year was coming to an end.

What were your hopes and fears this year? What monsters did you slay?

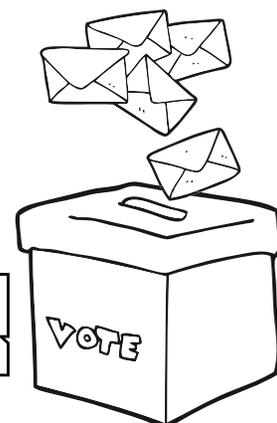

November just happened but it feels like it was 100 years ago when we had the United States' 46th Presidential Election.

SpaceX successfully launched its Crew Dragon spacecraft carrying three NASA astronauts.

How did you use your voice this year and how did you feel silenced?

NOVEMBER

December

There is a reason so many cultures celebrate major holidays during the coldest season and around the shortest day of the year. It's always good to come together, focus on who is in your community, and look forward to lengthening days.

A lot of us are alone this month, but because of our resilience people across the globe have begun receiving Covid vaccines giving us hope for a less isolated 2021.

create YOUR future

What will you make happen in 2021?

